

VIRTUAL EVENTS WITH THE IMPACT OF AN IN-PERSON CONFERENCE

DHD Films can elevate your content past mundane webcam calls to bring you BIG production value and show management that delivers an engaged audience every time.

WHAT DHD FILMS BRINGS TO THE TABLE

We're living in a time of major disruption. Meetings canceled, teams isolated... all these buzzwords keep floating around as potential solutions: Webinar? Webcast? Virtual Event? It's a lot of industry jargon all aiming to fix the same issue! You have an event that needs to engage online instead of in person. We'll transition your content to a digital platform without losing an ounce of the wow-factor.

STRATEGY

We work with you to develop an engaging run of show that makes your content feel as significant as keynotes from the world's leading tech companies. We can handle the speaker recruitment and vendor coordination to keep everyone in lockstep.

CONTENT

Content is king. Complement the message of your speakers with dynamic intros, video packages, entertainment breaks, and tools that drive your points home with stunning animation and production quality.

TECHNOLOGY

We offer a range of packages that scale from in-home setups (camera kits, lighting, backdrops), to shooting live on any soundstage across the country. Our professional services team will provide full-range support to help you overcome any technical roadblocks.

INFRASTRUCTURE

We use the best-in-class platforms to broadcast your message. Our hosting services ensure your content has a long shelf life, and our analytics measure engagement so you can refine your content for future use.
